I have used Slaven's California Fruit Salt, and found it a most valuable medicine. I can confidently recommend it as a specific for all diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys. I have found it particularly useful when suffering from sick headache, caused by long fasting, fatigue and overwork It is pleasant to take, and being made from ripe fruit by an able chemist, I consider it perfectly pure and harmless. HUB PUNCH

TO TOP OFF A DINNER,

May be Drank Clear, as a Cordial

For a dinner thoroughly appointed, the good old way was to wash down the last triumphs of the feast with copious libations of old Port and Golden Sherry; but "HUB PUNCH" has added a new sensation to the epicure. Its delicacy, aroma, flavor, and delicious, but gentle effects, proclaim it the nectar fit for the gods banqueting on Olympus.

Mix HUB PUNCH with Ice Water, Cold Tea, Lemonade, or Soda. It is unanimously pronounced unrivalled.

TESTIMONIALS.

"A quiet-like nectar."—Boston Courier.

"Delicious beyond description."—Boston Transcript.

"Added to the good things of the table it encourages good nature."—Springfield Republican.

"Invaluable for a little treat when a friend drops in."—New York Evening Post.

"Many people lack the secret Ariel to brew Punch. Hub Punch is indispensable wherever known."—Spirit of the Times, N. Y.

"The popularity of Hub Punch is testimony to your success in using the best and purest components." PARE & TILFORD, New York.

"Oursales of Hub Punch have surprised us—sold within three months a larger quantity than we anticipated selling in twelve." SMITH & VANDERBEEK, New York and Chicago.

COAST CLIPPINGS.

Freighters from the north are biginning to arrive at Redding, Cal.

The Chinese arrivals for 30 days past are about 6,500, and more on the way.

In the Anti-Chinese Convention the Ruby Hill Miners' Union was reported as numbering 450 men.

The American river, at Sacramento, is very high, owing to the rapid melting of the snows in the mountains.

The proprietorship of the Ogden Pilot has changed hands from E. A. Littlefield to the Pilot Publishing Co.

A Cherry Creek physician has secured a stomach pump, and the News warns people contemplating suicide to take notice.

The White Pine News says the mining and business outlook of Cherry Creek has improved wonderfully in the past thirty days.

Cats are in demand at Bishop Creek' Inyo county. Any person having a surplus of cats can find a profitable market at Bishop Creek.

Eureka Chinamen seemed to rejoice over the passage of the Chinese bill, judging from the quantity of bombs and firecrackers they exploded.

In obedience to the Sunday Law the Chinese washmen of San Francisco close up business on that day, refusing to deliver "washee" to their white customers.

Things are looking lively down around Auburn, Cal. A rich strike has been made in the old Crater mine, on the 800 level, which is apt to stimulate deep mining operations in that locality.

Belmont Courier: The vaqueros of this town have gone to the mountains for the purpose of gathering a large number of cattle, which will be driven to Wyoming Territory.

A Canadian Speaks.

When anything worth saying is spoken in that terse and pointed way that bears the impress of honest conviction, we like to have people know the nature of the communication. Of such a nature is the following from W. F. Haist, Campden P. O., Lincoln Co., Ontario. Mr. Haist says: With great joy over my restored health, I would write a few lines concerning that wonderful remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. For the last six years I have been using various medicines internally and externally, but nothing would help me. Finally I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, which cured me after a few applications. My mother-in-law, who has also been a great sufferer from rheumatism, was also instantly relieved by the use of the Great German Remedy. St. Jacobs Oil is a great blessing to suffering humanity, and I shall do all in my power to spread its merits.

Something Lacking.

A well-known Illinois farmer was in Chicago on business the other day, when an acquaintance took occasion to ask:

"Well, Farmer Jones, is the wheat all right this Spring?"

"Y—e—s, purty fair," was the grudging reply.

"Good show for fruit?"

"Well, I guess so."

"Sell your potatoes at a big price?"

"Purty big, but I didn't have many."

"Had any too much rain in your section?"

"Guess not."

"Well, then, I don't see as you have anything to complain of. I think you ought to feel like a young colt."

"Wall, I s'pose things do look a little bright—just a little—but I don't see any occasion for shouting. Fact is, twenty-one of my ewes had single lambs when they might as well have had twins, and I don't look for much of a price on wool this Summer."

A "Shiner."

A silver dollar with a bit of concave mirror set into one side is by gamblers called a shiner. By laying it among his pile of coin and dealing over it, the operator can know what every player holds for that deal, the cards being reflected in miniature. A member of the Mining Club of Leadville has been caught using a shiner. By means of it he won $2,500 in a night at poker.

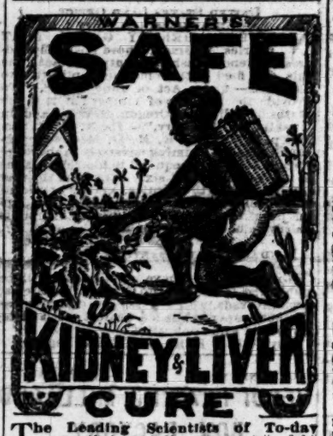

Finding Water.

A micro-telephone has been used with great success in discoversng underground water courses in the Tyrol. By the way, may not those persons who use "divinang rods" to discover places where wells could be dug, have been possessed of an unusually sensitive power of hearing, which enabled them to detect the gurgling of water deep down in the earth, and simply employed a willow wand as a "blind."

An Anti-Chinese Brewer.

John Wieland of the Philadelphia Brewrey of San Francisco has cancelled his insurance policies in the German-American Insurance Company on the ground that the president of the company had signed a petition to the President to veto all Chinese bills.

There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

THE STATE FAIR.

May is nearly half gone and no steps have yet been taken towards making arrangements for the State Fair this Fall. If anything is to be done it is high time we were making a move in that direction. Washoe county cannot afford to miss this year after working so hard to establish the State Fair at Reno. It is of incalculable benefit to stock men and farmers, besides being a great help to the town, and it is a shame to let it go by the board for the lack of a little energy and pluck. Let the Trustees elect call a meeting, organize the Board and inform the citizens what contributions are needed to make the Fair a success; the people will surely respond to the call and assist in every way possible to push the thing through. Start the ball.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A party of Boston excursionists recently came over the Southern Pacific Railroad, and stopped a day at El Paso. According to the El Paso Herald, the amount of money left in that town by the excursionists was not calculated to create any great upheaval in financial and commercial circles. The Herald says that outside of hotel bills the whole party spent three dollars in the town. One excursionist bought a glass of lemonade for ten cents, drank half of it and carried the other half up to his wife. Another had his boots blacked and offered the artist two cents. The dispute had to be settled by the landlord, who gave the boy a dime to save his guest from abuse. The guest allowed him to pay it.

An over-scientific genius has discovered that the earth has been thrown off its feet, and that the equatorial line now runs through the Northern States. In a few years more all kinds of tropical productions, including crocodiles, bananas and yellow fever, will thrive as far north as Maine. This isothermal revolution has been got up in the interest of the projectors of the Panama canal, who found it impossible to prosecute the work unless there was a radical change in the climate.

A bill has been passed by the Texas Legislature taxing all persons who sell illustrated bawdy papers $500 a year. These publications have a most pernicious influence. They are filled with barren nastiness, and have no influence except for evil.

Francis B. Murdock, a pioneer of California, and one of the oldest newspaper publishers in the State, died in San Francisco yesterday. He was for a long time editor of the San Jose Patriot.

It will be interesting to note, when the Dublin assassins have been captured, how long it will take the British Government to dispose of them.

A Public School Fund.

WASHINGTON, May 11.

In the House, Sherman, from the Committee on Education and Labor, reported a bill to aid in the support of common schools. It provides that for the next five years there shall be annually appropriated a common school fund of ten million dollars to aid in the support of common schools, apportioned to the several States and Territories according to the number of their illiterate population over ten years of age. An amount not exceeding five per cent. of the sum apportioned may be used for the education of teachers in public schools.

An Executive Department of Agriculture.

WASHINGTON, May 10.

The House of Representatives, by a vote of 172 to 7, passed without amendment, the bill creating an Executive Department of Agriculture, which provides that the Department shall be under the control of a Secretary that is an experienced and practical agriculturist, and establishes departments of agricultural produce industry, lands and statistics.

The Assassination—Several Arrests—A Slight Clue Obtained—Funeral of Lord Cavendish.

DUBLIN, May 10.

At Haverford an Irishman has made a statement that last week in Dublin he refused an offer of £100 to assist in the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke. The statement has been communicated to Sir William Harcourt, Home Secretary. The man has been taken to Liverpool, and still adheres to his statement. His knowledge of the locality of the crime, and his description of the men, give his statement the appearance of truth. It is expected something important will come of his statements. He says he can lay his hands on the assassins.

A man named Quail has been arrested with stains on his trousers. He came from Dublin on Saturday. He admits that he was in Phœnix Park at 7 o'clock on Saturday night, but denies any knowledge of the murder. Another arrest has been made at Athlone.

The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has signed an order forbidding the executive officials to go beyond the precincts of the city without police protection.

Colonel Hillyer, Inspector-General of the Constabulary, has resigned. A distinguished artillery officer has been selected to succeed him.

THE BICYCLE RIDERS

Who assert they witnessed the murder of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke, are brass fitters, named Magee and Fry. They have been further interrogated by the Castle authorities and adhere to their statement made yesterday. Fry, who was following Magee on his machine, says he saw a man having a large butcher knife raised to strike, but did not see the stab given. He also says Lord Cavendish got up after being knocked down. The story told by the men is not credited. It is not believed they saw anything of the scene they pretend to describe.

MICHAEL DAVITT SPEAKS.

LONDON, May 11.

Michael Davitt has written to the Secretary on the subject of the assassinations. After expressions of admiration for the Standard's language since the terrible murders, he says: "I feel that I was neglecting duty if I permitted your remarks to go unanswered, for the opinion you express of the sincerity of my condemnation of the murder and for your belief that Mr. Parnell, Dillon and myself are guiltless of all alliance with murder." In answer to the Standard's request to come forward and make a clean breast of information that would throw light on the subject, Davitt recalls the fact that he came out of Portland prison at three o'clock Saturday afternoon, after having been confined in solitude for 15 months, without seeing a paper or letter that did not pass through the hands of the governor of the prison. He rebuts the implication that he had anything to do with the murders. He recalls the fact that from the first organization of the League he warned the Irish people against outrages as the greatest danger to the movement. He said that when he delivered speeches in the United States from New York to San Francisco he did his best to lay the demon of revenge. He claims he always denounced violence, and refers to the report of his address published in the Irish-American press and made also by the Government short-hand writers for the verification of his statement. He continues: "Whoever is responsible for my arrest let him come forward and declare on what ground I was deprived of my liberty or lie under the imputation of having removed me because of my stand against the police conniving at murder and outrage."

LONDON, May 11.

Davitt says he will willingly go to Ireland and do what he can to further peaceful doctrines, but he asks how he can protest with effect against outrages, when the most brutal and irritating outrages are being committed in the name of the law.

THE NEW IRISH BILL.

It is understood the Irish bill is now complete, and that it provides in complicated ways for reforms in arrears and for concessions between landlords and tenants with tolerable evenness, and in this respect is nearly identical with the bill drawn by Parnell. It provides that the landlord shall give up one year's rent to the tenant, who is to pay one year, and the third year is to be paid out of the church surplus fund. A general resemblance exists between the two bills, the Government conceding as far as possible to Parnell. In reference to crimes the new bill gives great powers to magistrates in these matters.

MORE ARRESTS.

DUBLIN, May 11.

Further arrests have been made in Drougheda, Longford and County Meath in connection with the assassination. The men arrested in Meath have what is supposed to be bloodstains on their clothes. The police now deny the statement that the man who was arrested had been offered £100 to assist the murderers.

CELEBRATION ABANDONED.

At a meeting of the Parnell Reception Committee at Cork last evening, two ex-suspects being among those present, the abandonment of an illumination to celebrate the release of prisoners was voted without a dissenting voice.

HOPES OF A CLUE.

The man Quail, or Quinn, arrested at Preston yesterday on suspicion of being concerned in the murder, is remanded until Saturday. A detective stated he thought he could collect evidence which would implicate him in the crime.

GOING TO THE FUNERAL.

LONDON, May 11.

A large crowd gathered at St. Pancrois railway station to-day, to witness the departure of a special train conveying mourners to Chatsworth to attend the funeral of Lord Frederick Cavendish. Among them were the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Edinburg, representing the Queen; Gladstone, Lord Granville, Forster, the Attorney-General, Postmaster-General, and many other distinguished persons. A most conspicuous feature was an assemblage of five thousand tenants of the Duke of Devonshire, father of Lord Cavendish.

A DOUBTFUL REPORT.

It is reported that as Right Hon. Morris, Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and Right Hon. Chas. F. Barry, Fourth Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, were walking in Phœnix Park on Saturday, a few minutes after the murders were committed, and before they knew of them, a rough-looking man said to the Lord Chief Justice: "The Chief and Under Secretary have been murdered. You are the next one spotted."

PATRICK EGAN ASTONISHED.

Mr. Egan, Treasurer of the Land League, telegraphed the following to the Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, to-night: "In the Freeman of yesterday James Forbin suggests a reward of £2,000 out of the Land League fund for the discovery of the perpetrators of the terrrible crime of Saturday. Remembering, as I do, the number of innocent victims who, in the sad history of our country, have been handed over to the gallows by wretched informers, in order to earn coveted blood money, and, foreseeing the awful danger that in the present excited state of public feeling, a crime may be added to a crime by the possible sacrifice of guiltless men, I am determined that if one penny of the Land League Fund were voted for such a purpose I would at once resign.

GLADSTONE'S ANXIETY.

LONDON, May 10.

A vast number of telegrams are received hourly at the official residence, many of which have information demanding the personal attention of the Premier. He has not been in bed five hours at any one time since Friday night, but works with a feverish anxiety that indicates a full knowledge of the crisis hanging over the Government. His son is understood to have almost succumbed to the strain. It is quite clear that Gladstone thinks he can weather the storm. Many members of his own party urged him yesterday and to-day to adopt severe methods. Several Radicals threaten to bolt if he continues his present policy, and nearly all the Whigs threaten the same action unless he adopts a strong line of action.

EASTERN TELEGRAMS.

The Army Reunion.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.

At the Army Reunion this evening the People's Theater was crowded by members of the society and their friends. On the left of the stage were Generals Sherman, Sheridan, Pope, Governor Crittenden of Missouri, Mayor Ewing of St. Louis, and other prominent persons, besides several lady members and families. A mimic scene in camp at sunset deepening into night, with moon and stars, was shown on the stage, with very pretty effect by bugle calls, "Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching," etc. This was concluded by ex-Governor Fletcher of Missouri, who delivered an address, and later tendered the hospitalities of the State to the society. Major Ewing of St. Louis welcomed them, and General Sherman made a speech in response. Other speeches were made by General J. A. Williamson of Iowa, General Phil Sheridan, General John Pope and others.

ST. LOUIS, May 11.

The Society of the Army of Tennessee met again this morning at the People's Theatre, General Sherman in the chair. General Reynolds, for the Committee, reported the time and place of the next reunion as the 3d and 4th of October, 1883, the anniversary of the battle of Corinth, at Cleveland, Ohio.

A discussion followed, and a committee was appointed to consider the advisability of meeting in Yellowstone Park or Colorado in 1884, and also as to wearing uniforms. The meeting then adjourned to meet in Cleveland, Ohio, October 18.

A Republican Split in Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO, May 11.

A special from Washington indicates that proceedings in the Pennsylvania convention yesterday will have the effect of still further widening the breach in the Republican party, and that there is little doubt that another Republican ticket will be put in the field. Senator Mitchell is reported to have stated that he would not support the ticket, but that the Independents will, on the 24th, nominate a State ticket.

Guiteau's Bill of Exceptions.

WASHINGTON, May 11.

Arguments on the bill of exceptions in the case of Guiteau were resumed this morning. Colonel Corkhill opened for the prosecution. After detailing the circumstances of the shooting, he passed on to the question of jurisdiction, and pronounced as utterly absurd the position taken that because President Garfield was not allowed to remain in Washington and die, the Court, therefore, has no jurisdiction.

Brewers' Convention.

WASHINGTON, May 11.

The Brewers' Convention adopted a resolution asking the Government to encourage the production of lighter drinks by removing illiberal restrictions on manufactures and imposing no more excise on the product of raw material than the wants of the people demand. Though averse to mingling party with this question, the brewers pledge themselves to act together in defeating condidates that pander to fanaticism by supporting prohibition.

Paddy Ryan's Rupture.

CHICAGO, May 11.

The Times says Paddy Ryan told the truth about his disability in fighting Sullivan. He called upon a State street expert yesterday and secured a retentive truss to hold a double inguinal hernia. He claims that in the second round of the contest his injury developed to double the size of his fist.

A Dumb Minister.

CHICAGO, May 11.

John Russell Young was invited by a reporter last night to talk on the Chinese question. He said: "I can't do it. You know I am a journalist myself, and would like to help you out if I could, but my lips are sealed."

A Texas Cyclone.

DENISON, Texas, May 10.

Great destruction is reported in the vicinity of Paris, Texas. Two storms met at McAllister and wrought death and destruction such as only cyclones can. Every building was torn to pieces. A train with physicians, nurses and aid generally has been sent there. The fall of rain was terrific and was accompanied by a great quantity of hail, which fell as far north as Fort Gibson. A washout occurred on the M. K. & T. railroad near Armstrong. The locomotive went down an embankment and the engineer was killed. Travel is generally suspended on most of the Texas roads, caused by the fury of the storm. Marshall and its vicinity was also visited by the cyclone. Great trees, fine houses, farm buildings, fences, etc., were torn down like toys. The buildings on Tom Craig's plantation, twelve miles from Marshall, were demolished, and the occupants seriously injured. A negro was killed on Frank Hall's plantation. There were a number injured but none killed in Marshall.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

DALLAS, May 11.

News from McAllister concerning the cyclone says the deaths, added to those killed outright, increase the fatalities to 21 up to to-night; 42 more were wounded, but not thought fatally. Half the killed and wounded are women and children. All possible aid from physicians and nurses is being rendered the sufferers. Fifty-nine houses were totally demolished and 27 partially. Settlements Nos. 5 and 7 of the Osage Mining Company were the ones visited. They had contained about 400 people. No. 5 was entirely wiped out and No. 7 received only the partial force of the storm. Relief subscriptions are being taken up at various points.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Perhaps not many readers of the GAZETTE are interested in our whereabouts, but I am quite sure they would all have been delighted had they been in our little party yesterday as we climbed the mountains to the west of our little village so as to get a fine view of the entire valley and its mountain surroundings, in all their present loveliness and glory. If nature presents a more charming view for human eyes to feast upon than that on which we looked, it must be rare indeed. Leaving this village, nestled among the foothills close to the base of the mountains, we found a good carriage road, though up a rather steep grade, to the home of Mrs. Brown and her daughter.

After drinking of the sparkling cold water and feasting on the beauties of the landscape spread out on the plains below till keen appetites called for something more substantial than fine scenes and pure air, we all—twelve visitors and eight of the family—gathered around, not a table, but a tablecloth, spread in true picnic style on the grass, and covered with a satisfactory lunch, drawn from both well-filled baskets and the hospitable house near by. After a merry hour spent here and another in the enjoyment of music and chat in doors, the party started for their homes 2,000 feet below, more than satisfied with the pleasures of the trip. A. B. PALMER.

PANTLIND'S WILL.

Death-bed Originality of a Former Carson Landlord.

The late John T. Pantlind everybody in this part of the State knew. His holographic will, signed the day of his death, is a remarkable document for its originality. "Pant" prepared the instrument as follows: "I, John T. Pantlind, of the City of San Francisco, county of San Francisco (I guess it don't amount to a d—n, anyhow, what county I am in), State of dear old California, knowing the uncertainty of life, and being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my first, last and only will and testament. I wish it understood that I am in my clear, level-headed sense, and know just what I am about, and I don't want any one-horse lawyer business fooling around. I do not believe that I will die for six months yet, but I want this little business off my hands."

Old family differences are revived in the following declaration: "I do not wish any other Pantlind, or any of the children of Charles J. Pantlind from his second wife, to be buried in the same lot, or anywheres near. I want the family of Charles J. Pantlind by his first and only loved wife, Sophia Pantlind, to be buried near together, and one monument for all. I love and respect my two half sisters by my father's second marriage—they are good and noble girls, but they don't belong to the first issue. There was a chasm during life; let it be even wider in death. This death-bed repentance and pardoning of great wrongs is all in your eye, and worse than hypocrisy."

His instructions regarding his interment read as follows: "I wish to be buried in my best black suit, Prince Albert coat, vest, pants, underclothing, white shirt, collar and black tie, hands to be side by side on chest, but not crossed. I want to be buried by the Masons; 32nd can turn out; also, Grand Army of the Republic and Hotel Men's Association. I don't want any minister or preacher of any kind at the funeral. Masons do the entire work. Gospel sharps and I never flocked together muchly. I may not die for a year or more, but best get things in shape.

The petition for the probate of the will states that the testator died on the day the will was dated, that he was 37 years of age, and left an estate valued at $1,000.

Truckee Items.

[From the Republican of Wednesday.]

The snow at Lake Tahoe is disappearing rapidly.

Truckee had a visitor last Sunday. Whether he was a crank or a bilk has not been determined.

Ed. Henry, conductor on the Desert, is temporarily running between Truckee and Wadsworth in place of Mr. Brasher.

The town flag was run up this morning in honor of the passage and signature of the Chinese bill.

Monday last, George Humphreys shipped several carloads of beef cattle to Nevada City.

John F. Moody expects to put on his daily stage line to Tahoe City in about ten days.

Mrs. Ricker, writing to her sister at Eureka, Nevada, about her husband's death, says that the good man's last words were, "It is all right."

Lank House, passenger conductor between Truckee and Winnemucca, has been confined to his house several days with the measles. Conductor Brasher is running his train in the meantime.

The work of shoveling out the Tahoe road, which was covered up by a landslide several weeks ago, was commenced yesterday morning. The slide is over fifteen feet deep. The snow has entirely disappeared from the road up the river as far as the fishery.

"Salty's Jumped."

The Virginia Chronicle of last evening has the following: John Saltenberger, keeper of the Brooklyn restaurant on C street, left for Gold Hill last Saturday evening, saying that he was going to look out for a man that owed him, and whom he thought was going to run away. He has not yet returned. On Monday his wife concluded to "go to Gold Hill" also, and leaving the cooks in the kitchen preparing breakfast, she took her departure also. It is probable she got on the train for Reno, as she has not been seen since. Shortly after the departure of Saltenberger and his wife became known a number of creditors gathered around the place, and the work of putting on attachments began. Very little property was found, however. The restaurant is closed, or in the words of a local poet who has submitted to the Chronicle a metrical composition on the flight: "Empty is the hash-house, Salty's jumped."

Dangerous Sport.

Reno boys indulge in the reprehensible sport of jumping on trains when they are in swift motion. A little judicious "lamming" on the part of parents might possibly save some funeral expenses, or at least defer such expenditure for a while. Besides, an undertaker takes no pride in fixing things up nice at a funeral when the subject of the ceremony has been ground into cutlets under a freight car.

Spring Hints.

The GAZETTE scientist charges nothing for the following hints: A pint of soot from the chimney or stove-pipe in a pailful of water will make a liquid manure of the greatest value for flowers and plants of all kinds. Wood ashes make a good fertilizer for pear trees. Mixed coal and wood ashes may also be applied with advantage. Ground bones are better for fruit-trees of all kinds than fermenting manure.

The "Weekly Gazette."

THE RENO WEEKLY GAZETTE issued to-day is a prime number, containing particulars of the finding of the remains of Lieutenant De Long and his party in the Arctic; the assassination of Lord Cavendish and Thomas H. Burke in Dublin, and circumstances of the suicide of J. B. Brogan at Truckee, together with a large amount of interesting miscellaneous and local matter. Only $2 50 a year to any part of America, post paid.

Chinese Arrived.

Forty-six Chinamen arrived on this morning's emigrant train and took the V. & T. train for the south to work on the Carson & Colorado railroad. When they landed with their traps the air was filled with angular ejaculations, and tainted with a corpsy odor. There seemed to be a thousand of them. There are more to come.

District Court.
